Cars Crash In Antioch Area

Five Person Accident
Three auto accidents involving Antioch residents have occurred within the last week, the Waukegan Sheriff's Office reported.

Robert W. Dixon, 35, of Salem, ran into a car driven by Edward R. Wasson, 24, of Antioch on Rte. 59 and Grand Avenue, Sunday, Nov. 5. Wasson, who had two passengers, Rene Reich, 17, of Lake Villa, and Staley Leslie, 21, also of Lake Villa, was traveling at a high rate of speed, heading south on 59, and using no directionals, attempted a left turn. Dixon, heading north, struck him. His passenger was Dorothy Hull of Antioch.

All five passengers were injured and were taken to the St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan by the Lake Villa and Fox Lake Rescue Squads. Their injuries were described as serious by the Sheriff's Office.

Car Side-swiped

Andrew Anderson, 26, of Antioch and John A. Springer, 35, of Lake Villa, side-swiped each other on the Tiffany Road, north of Rte. 173, Monday morning, Nov. 6.

Anderson was going south on Tiffany and Springer north when the accident occurred. Springer's car crashed into a ditch nearby, knocking down 4 mail boxes.

Both, having no passengers, were taken to the Antioch Clinic. Anderson was later removed to Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan. He was given a ticket for an expired license.

Three-Car Pile-up

Three cars piled up on Grass Lake Road, 1 1/2 miles west of Rte. 59, Tuesday, Nov. 7, at 3:45 p.m.

Nelson Gonyo, 64, of Antioch, driver of the first car, stopped to allow another unknown car to make a right-hand turn.

Barbara J. Schweigert, 17, of Antioch with two passengers under age 16, hit Gonyo from the rear.

A third car driven by Bette P. Wilson, 39, of Antioch, then hit the Schweigert car.

None of the drivers or occupants were hurt, but Miss Wilson was issued a ticket for leaving the scene of the accident.

Berke Assists In CMS Dinner

Dr. Adolph N. Berke, 365 Orchard St., Antioch, is assisting with arrangements for the forthcoming annual dinner of The Chicago Medical School which will be held Tuesday, Dec. 5, in the Guildhall of the Ambassador West Hotel.

Dr. Berke is secretary of the school's Board of Trustees which is seeking $945,027 in funds to meet the operating deficit for the current academic year.

The dinner, for business and industrial leaders, will also serve to honor Lester N. Sell, retired chairman of the board of the General American Transportation Corporation, to whom tribute will be paid for his outstanding activity in behalf of The Chicago Medical School. Mr. Sell has served on the board of the school since 1943 and as board chairman since 1948.

It was he who was largely responsible for making possible the school's newly-completed Institute for Medical Research in the West Side Medical Center at 2020 Ogden Ave.

Dr. Berke, a member of the 1961 dinner committee, is an alumnus of The Chicago Medical School.

McClory Presides At Republican Meeting

Senator Robert McClory (Republican, Lake Bluff), Vice Chairman of the Republican Senate Caucus is presiding at the Caucus this week in Springfield.

Issues awaiting final action include the proposed CTA Subsidy Bill, Service Occupation and Corporation Franchise Tax Increase measures, and a Bill for Congressional Redistricting.

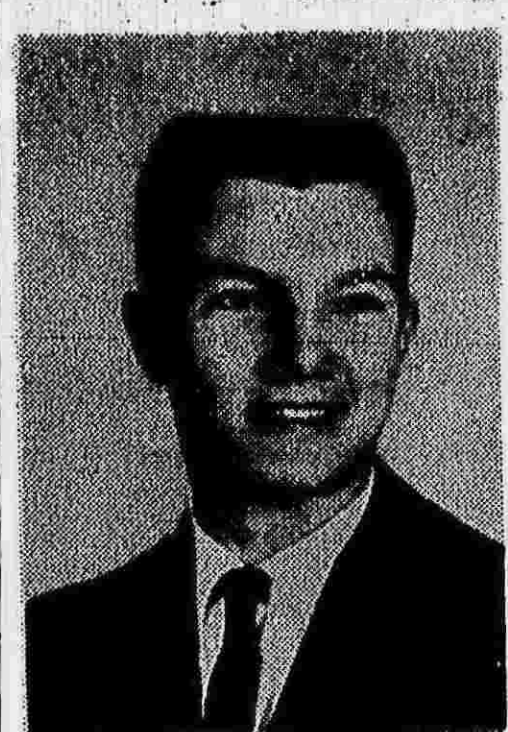

Senator McClory also presided at the Republican Caucus last week which resulted in the decision to support a redistricting measure to establish 8 Congressional Districts in the City of Chicago, 4 Districts in Suburban Cook County, and 12 Downstate Districts, including a new Congressional District comprising Lake, McHenry and Boone Counties. This measure, which has received majority approval in the State Senate, provides representation on the basis of the 1960 census figures. Chicago's loss of population entitles it to no more than 8 Districts instead of the 10 which it formerly had. Growth of the suburbs entitles this area to 4 Districts instead of the present 3 Districts. The population increase in Lake and McHenry counties has resulted in these two counties forming a new District under all of the redistricting proposals which have been presented thus far in the special session.

Senator McClory reports that a redistricting bill, closely resembling that of Senate Bill 31 which has received Republican Caucus action, will be passed within the next one or two weeks.

In connection with his service as presiding officer of the Republican Caucus, Senator McClory has worked closely with Senator John A. Graham of Barrington, principal sponsor of the Congressional Redistricting Bill, and Chairman of the Senate Elections Committee.

Resident Wins School Honors

Arthur Hanke

Arthur Hanke, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hanke, Jr., of Antioch, recently achieved a scholastic record held by only five per cent of those attending Stout State College.

Listed on the Dean's Scholastic Honors roll, Hanke is a graduate student studying for his master's degree in Industrial Arts.

Hanke is a 1958 graduate of Antioch High School and was voted the most valuable basketball player of that year.

Church to Show All Benefit Film

The St. Ignatius Episcopal Church will sponsor a benefit movie November 14, 15, and 16, "High Time" starring Bing Crosby and Fabian. The movie will begin at 7 p.m. with two shows nightly.

Tickets are available through the Church School Faculty and students or at the box office of the Lakes Theater where the picture will be shown.

Proceeds of the benefit will go to church school activities.

Chamber of Commerce Reviews Its By-Laws

Merchants to Ask For Village Aid

The businessmen's committee, formed to obtain the right-of-way for the newly proposed road to run from Park Avenue to Depot Street behind stores on the east side of Main Street, met Tuesday evening, Nov. 7, at 8 p.m.

The committee members, Robert Wilton, Charles Keulman, Robert Taylor and Joseph Patrovsky discussed the possibility of obtaining the right-of-way necessary for the road's construction from those owning property in the required area.

The committee touched upon a five-year program which would entail the filling in of land east of the proposed road for additional parking area.

A proposition of asking for 150 feet of clearing for the road from property owners was finally decided. This amount of footage would permit accessible parking and trucking facilities, it was explained. The committee members then stated that they would request

Vets Set Open Legion House

A Veterans' Day committee, Paul L. Chase, F. A. Swenson and John L. Horan, have arranged for an open house to take place on November 11, at 7 p.m., in the Legion Home, with the Legion and Auxiliary members invited. A potluck meal will be served followed by visiting and card playing for the evening.

A memorial service will be held in the morning at the local cemetery. Legion members will gather at the Legion Home at 10:30 a.m.

The Village Board to have its attorney draw up releases for the property owners to sign in giving the right-of-way. The committee also intended to ask that the Village engineer stake off the property so that realization of the needed area could be understood.

The committee adjourned at 10 p.m.

Antioch's HS Band Concert Scheduled Here Next Week

The Antioch High School Band and Choir will open their concert season on November 18, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The concert will be of a three-fold enjoyment to the audience. First the concert band will provide the best in band music followed by the senior choir in its first appearance at a fall concert as well as their first appearance under the direction of their new conductor, Miss Della Mae Tronchuk. Following the formal concert the high school dance band will play an hour's dance music for all those who wish to dance or just listen.

Outstanding special features will highlight the concert. First, during the concert, two special groups will appear. A baritone trio doing Leroy Anderson's Bugler's Holiday. This trio is made up of Paul Erickson, George Wilson, and Mike Zelen. The other group will be a saxophone quartet made of H. Young, B. Oil-schlager, T. Erlenborn, and R. Pro-sise. This group will do Dave Bennett's Sax-Soliloquy. Both groups will be accompanied by the concert band.

Not only will this be the first fall concert for the choir, but also it will be the first public appearance in Antioch of the newly organized Swing Choir. This group will specialize in the lighter forms of vocal music, much as the dance band has done with the concert band.

With the many outstanding special events and the fine music of the band and choir, November 18 should prove to be a very enjoyable concert for all who attend.

Tickets are on sale now and may be purchased from either band or choir members or at the door the night of the program. See picture on page 7.

Union HS Has Student Play

The Junior Class of Wilmot High School will present a 3-act comedy play entitled "The Great Big Doorstep," written by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett, on Friday night, November 10 starting at 8 o'clock. Tickets may be reserved by contacting members of the Junior Class and tickets will also be sold at the door.

The story relates that when Ol' Man River floats the aristocratic big doorstep to their tumbledown shack, Mrs. Crochet feels that her dream of a home may really come true. At least, they have the doorstep to a home! Mrs. Crochet joyously begins to plan it all; she'll be able to grow her lilies openly in the yard instead of hidden in the canebrake, lest their mean landlady claim the bulbs for back rent. The play consists of irresistible humor, pathos and beauty.

Directors of the play are Mrs. Emily MacDonald and Mr. George Schollian. Student director is Nancy Nicpon.

High School Presents Play

Daffy murderers, an eccentric gentleman given to charging up stairs without provocation, plotters and a few innocent bystanders thrown in for good measure, are the characters to be portrayed in ATHS's production of "Arsenic and Old Lace."

The play, enacted by an all-student cast, is directed by Kenneth Smouse and his assistant, Miss Ruth Nickelson.

Time scheduled for the public production is 8 p.m. this Friday and Saturday, November 10 and 11. A review of the play will appear in next week's Antioch News.

Antioch's Chamber of Commerce met Monday, Nov. 6, at 7 p.m. at Adolph's Channel Inn at Channel Lake. The dinner meeting drew 26 persons, only 13 members, their wives and guests. John L. Horan, Executive Secretary of the Chamber, called the meeting to order at 7:35 p.m.

President Stanley W. Toton then asked for all guests to be introduced, which was followed by the reading of last month's minutes by John Horan.

The first committee report was volunteered by Preston Reckers, Jr., on the proposed Christmas decorations in Antioch this year. He reported that the approved candy canes and other miscellaneous decorations would be finished in time for Christmas.

Donald Hood, chairman of the brochure committee then reported the committee's plans and methods of producing the brochure.

The main topic of conversation centered about a proposed acceptance of the Chamber's present by-laws. Several members present suggested that certain items in the structure of the by-laws be deleted or changed. Concern was expressed over why the election of President, Vice-president, Secretary and Treasurer did not allow for group selection instead of an automatic rotation of offices.

Howard Shepard and Bernard Osmond were appointed to head a committee which would clarify objectionable points in the by-laws structure.

The Children's Christmas party and the area of where Santa Claus would appear was discussed. Bette Meyer was appointed to handle the distribution of candy to the children.

The meeting adjourned at 10:45.

A. T. Library Against Tax

Plans for National Book Week, held November 12 to 18, will include posters and book displays at the Antioch Township Library. Following a tradition of many years standing, the children will be given book marks which reproduce the beautiful design created by Peter Bur-chard and this year's slogan, "Hurry for Books."

At the monthly meeting of the Antioch Township Library Board, held Wednesday, November 1, the members of the board discussed the application of the sales tax to purchases of public libraries. Since libraries are classified as municipal organizations, they are obliged to pay this tax. It is the opinion of the Library Board that libraries should be classified as educational organizations and should be exempted as are the schools. Other business brought before the board included the hiring of high school students as pages and the need for catalog card files to take care of the library's expanding book collection.

M. Pechousek Is MD Leader

Mrs. Thomas Pechousek, 931 Main Street, has been named chairman of Antioch for the 1961 Thanksgiving March for Muscular Dystrophy to be held on Tuesday, November 28, according to Fran Allison, March Chairman for the Chicago area.

Mrs. Pechousek will help secure area chairmen within Antioch, who in turn will seek district chairmen. Each district chairman, with the help of the campaign Office will seek volunteer marchers.

Muscular dystrophy is a muscle disease in which there is a gradual weakness in the voluntary muscles until the victim is confined to a wheelchair, then bed.

There are more than 200,000 known victims of muscular dystrophy in the United States. Because so little is known about the disease, because it is not necessary to report it and because many wish to conceal it, there are probably many more cases about which there is no record.

Anyone interested in helping can contact Mrs. Thomas Pechousek at 931 Main St., 395-0234.

Mrs. Ernest Nielsen will help secure area chairmen within Lake Villa.

Lions Club Meets Monday

The Antioch Lions Club with over a hundred members enrolled will hold their first November bi-monthly meeting Monday evening, Nov. 13, at 7:15. The dinner meeting will be held at Paty's Lounge on Rte. 173, with approximately 60 members in attendance.

Ralph Zylke, vice-president of Fuller & Smith & Ross Inc., will be the guest speaker for the event.

Zylke, copy director of the Chicago office of Fuller & Smith & Ross, Inc., has been recently appointed a vice-president of the advertising agency. The announcement was made by Robert E. Allen, president of the firm.

With F&S&R since 1959, Zylke directs all copywriting for the Chicago office's print, radio and television advertising activities for 19 clients.

Zylke, 31, graduated from the University of Wisconsin with a degree in journalism. His first agency experience was gained as copy supervisor in the Milwaukee office of Klau-Van Pietersom-Dunlap, Inc. His copywriting experience includes material for both consumer and industrial accounts. He is married,

Mr. Ralph Zylke the father of two children and lives in Glenview.

The executive's talk will be concerned with the humorous elements of advertising. A recent newspaper article stated that one of his speeches was "humorous, witty and wonderful."

The speech will be preceded by the reading of the new proposed slate of club officers for 1962. The slate is proposed by past presidents of the club, Jack Fields, who is now president of the organization, will preside over Monday's meeting.

Jaycees Plan For Christmas Events

A recent meeting of the Lake Region Jaycees, held at the Sail Inn, brought together a good turnout of men in the 21 to 36 year-old bracket.

Speakers present were Jim York, Pete Peters, Briard Strout, Mel Luke and Bill Metaff.

The group investigated the proposed idea for an ice-skating rink in one of Antioch's parking lots. The proposed Kiddy Bowling Tournament for Thanksgiving was also discussed.

A Christmas party, also proposed, which would be held for underprivileged children of the Lake Region, was planned out.

"There's a gleam in her eye!" Verno Turovaara and Kenneth King, both starring in the high school's production of "Arsenic and Old Lace", portray Abby Brewster and the Rev. Doctor Harper.

A ROCK AGAINST FREEDOM

Last Wednesday evening, November 1, just after most persons living in and about Antioch had finished eating their dinner, a rock went sailing across quiet Main Street and crashed through a display window of the Antioch News.

Naturally enough, the Antioch News immediately inquired into the cause and reason behind this "accident."

Chief of Police Walter Scott reported that an officer was seated in a patrol car almost directly across the street from the Antioch News at the time of the "accident." Three boys were noticed standing near the patrol car. When the officer got out to speak to them, one ran. Chief Scott, who interrogated the boys about the "accident," reported that they disclaimed responsibility. The one who ran could not be reached. "He won't come out of his house," Chief Scott said. "He locked the door."

That, up to the present time, is all that has been offered by the police of our village as an explanation. The window was still broken. If someone had been in the office, perhaps he or she could have been seriously injured, maimed, blinded by flying glass.

It is our opinion that this destruction and vindictive act was perpetrated on the advice of an adult in retaliation of a news story printed in the pages of The Antioch News. The adult, self-angered at an unbiased and factual report, had previously come into our office full of physical and verbal threats. His children were among the boys standing across the street at the time of the "accident."

We feel that the handling of this incident by the authorities is not up to the expectations of all citizens in the community—to whom these authorities are responsible. We feel that it is a deplorable and disgusting situation for a community to allow open and unchecked threats of violence on its streets. The shattering of our window was only a beginning. Unless stern measures are taken, perhaps, everyone in the area will be subject to the same treatment.

However, we feel, that it will take more than one rock to censure this paper from printing the truth. Apparently certain persons are not familiar with the freedom of the press in this country. No one intimidates, threatens or attacks the voice of the people and succeeds, except Nikita Khrushchev and he is in Russia.

The Antioch News will continue in its policy to serve the community and to protect the common rights of all.

Let the thrower of that rock now realize that he has frightened no one and only harmed himself and disgraced his own American heritage.

A Film Review of Nightmare In Red

By Jay Nash

A showing of the historical documentary "Nightmare In Red" was shown Wednesday, November 1, at the Antioch High School PTA meeting.

The film, narrated by Alexander Scourby, was originally shown on "Project 20," a special television production appearing irregularly.

The opening scenes were clipped from the "Battleship Potemkin," a classic Russian silent movie dealing with the Russian sailors' revolt of 1905. Other movies liberally clipped from were "The Adventures of Michael Strogoff," "Disraeli," and "Rasputin and the Empress," all, of course, dealing with revolutions of one kind or another.

Accents of the film were not placed upon communism as a doctrine and way of life as much as were the waning years of Tsar Nicholas II, his fear of the "Dark People" (the masses of Russia's one-time serfdom) and the chaotic and emotional rise of Alexander Kerensky, whose brief-etched span of presidency was snuffed out by the insurgent Lenin and his henchmen, Trotsky, Zinoviev, Kamenev, and the now debunked Stalin.

There is a good bit of gore and many brutal atrocity shots in "Nightmare In Red," apparently designed to startle viewers into anxious observations. The lining up of "White Russians," in groups of threes, who were shot down crazily into trenches they themselves had dug were an example of amazing unreality. There was something strangely bothersome in watching these executions. It was as if those being shot were not of this world, but creatures without description, not human beings at all. In short, shots like these were too real, so much so that the impact of their significance was lessened by their actualities.

All-in-all, the film was more dramatic than instructive, more sensational than factual. The storming of the Tsar's Winter Palace, for instance, depicted thousands of revolutionaries charging against blazing machine guns. In reality the Winter Palace was defended only by a battalion of semi-armed women who put up no fight to speak of and were bayoneted to death when the Bolsheviks stroled into the building.

Accounts of this and other incidents shown can be found in Bertrand D. Wolfe's "Three Who Made a Revolution," Arthur Koestler's "The Invisible Writing" and "Ten Days That Shook the World" by the dedicated anarchist John Reed.

The second portion of the film dealt sketchily with the rise of Stalin through the war years on to his death.

Aside from the grotesqueries, atrocity shots captured or imagined, and the poignant quotes from the Russian Noble and monarchist, Leo Tolstoy, interjected by the narrator, the film stands as a paradox to fact.

However, if but for no other reason, it serves the purpose of bringing the interested closer to some of the many deadly facets of international communism.

Roll the drums. Rat-tat-tat. Play the fife. Whitt-tweet. Strike up the band. Ladies and gentlemen, presenting the one, the only, the inimitable Charles Waterton.

Picture this. Within the antechamber of a fair-to-middlin' nineteenth century English mansion stands a draped covered table used as a repository for visitors' coats, hats, canes, and such other paraphernalia as nineteenth-century visitors were apt to wear. One Dr. Hobson enters and, while removing his coat, hears a distinct growl under the table. Before he can move a set of jaws closes upon his ankle. Yes, it's Charles Waterton up to his old tricks again. Although Waterton dearly enjoyed playing doggie for his guests, Hobson eventually convinced him to abandon that game.

If that is not sufficiently off-beat, then picture Charles Waterton sleeping with his foot outside his tent in South America. He had, it seems, developed an intense fascination for the vampire bat and hoped that he might enjoy the experience of one of these little creatures feasting upon his large toe. Fortunately or unfortunately (depending on how you look at it) his expectations were never fulfilled.

But before you spring to the wild conclusion that Charles Waterton was a mere nut sadly in need of psychiatric therapy, allow me to explicate a bit further upon the nature of his quaint eccentricities.

Squire Waterton, born in 1782 and living just short of 83 years, claimed among his ancestors such luminaries as St. Mathilde, Queen of Germany—St. Margaret, Queen of Scotland; and St. Louis, King of France. No ordinary eccentric he, Charles Waterton can be rightfully accredited with: founding the first bird sanctuary (on his manor, Walton Hall in the county of Yorkshire), being the first person to describe the method of preparation of curare (a poison used by Brazilian natives later found to have medicinal use); and being the first English naturalist to describe the flora and fauna of South America—preceding such men as Charles Illinois faces temporary financial confusion as a result of the attempt of a large number of business firms to shift their liability from the Retailers Occupation Tax to the Service Occupation Tax. The rate under the Retailers' Occupation Tax is 3½ per cent, but under the Service Occupation Tax, it is 3 per cent.

The General Assembly failed in the regular session to establish these rates on a uniform basis. Therefore, I included as one of the most important matters on the call of the special session of the legislature the raising of the Service Occupation Tax to the level of the Retailers' Occupation Tax.

The difference in rates has caused a critical situation to arise in the orderly collection by the Illinois Department of Revenue. In the history of state revenue since 1933, no action by the legislature has had the disrupting influence and tended to confuse the revenue picture so much as the conflict in rates in the two compound taxes.

Today, there are more injunction suits with multiple complaints filed against the department by taxpayers attempting to change their status than at any other time in the state's history. There are literally hundreds of business categories involved in these suits. There are also test actions at law attacking constitutionality on the basis of discrimination whereby taxpayers claim damage and a violation of the 14th amendment. No litigation has ever reached these proportions in so short a time.

This tax rate confusion all over the State of Illinois is fast contributing to a breakdown in enforcement and making for total disgust and disillusionment of the general public and administrators alike. This condition is not political, but in every sense must be regarded as having a critical effect on the state's total revenue income.

It is a condition caused by the imbalance in rates and constitutes an emergency situation which must be corrected.

For that reason, it is necessary to increase the Service Occupation Tax rate and make it uniform with the Retailers' Occupation Tax.

Letters to
The Editor

Mr. Jay Nash
Antioch News
Antioch, Illinois
Dear Mr. Nash:

Don't let these two-finger artists kid you. I don't know how old George Rinehart is, but I'm pushing 70 and I learned touch type-writing when I was 15; and my sister confusing—accounts of his life and times: an "Autobiography," "Essays," and "Wanderings in South America." Most recently biographed by Richard Aldington and included by Edith Sitwell in her "English Eccentrics." Waterton enjoyed equally fine recognition among his contemporaries. Norman ("South Wind") Douglas left a short account of him and the American painter, Charles Wilson Peale, a portrait. All of which proves nothing save that Waterton was a truly "colorful" personality—a rare commodity in any age.

learned it in the same Business College 7 years before I did. I worked on a City daily while studying and all the reporters followed the hunt and peck method because they didn't want to take time out to do any better. Fifteen years later I worked the Police Beat with reporters from the various papers and they all were forefinger men. Some of the most expert used three, as you say, and one or two could manage four.

Their hands and fingers go like crazy but they lose 60 per cent motion. The crack reporter (so far as pounding the machine was concerned) on the Detroit Free Press challenged me and I beat him by 50 words per minute. I'd lay it on the line you could do the same with Rinehart.

Incidentally, there aren't any—and yet there are many—real touch typists these days. Even the two-fingered artists gradually get so they can type without looking at the keys, but they don't teach it the way they used to. Nowadays they use blank keys and the operator soon gets to know these keys as well as if the letters were on them, but they can't take their eyes off the keys or they'll plunk the wrong blank one. We used to have a square sheet of tin hanging over the keyboard and let the teacher see your head bobbing down to take a peek and you had to do two extra lessons. Six months of such training and you can type in the dark. It takes a present-day graduate at least two years before he or she can pull eye off the little round blank buttons, and they can't keep them off for a whole page.

Very truly,

R. A. VanderPyl

Along The Way

with
Annie Mae

Did you ever watch a nice shiny chauffeur-driven limousine cruise down the street and think to yourself, "pretty soft job." Well, I for one don't envy that chauffeur one minute, as I dash out in the morning to drop Dad off at his job, a couple of kids at the Grade School, a couple more at High School, then back to the beds and dishes. Hurry now, it's time to take Grandma to her lady friend's, stop at the butcher's, just five minutes to get home before the repairman shows up. By the way, did I have lunch? Oh well, too late now, time to start dinner! On with the coat again, this is my day to take the Scouts, stop at the grocer's, pick up Susie and take her to a music lesson. "Hope the roast is all right." Now back to get the Scouts again. Oh, sure, we can take two more home (I like the roast nice and crisp anyway.) Quick, peel those potatoes, it's time to pick up Dad. You think we need a second car. No, just a second chauffeur! Any volunteers?

It looked like Jack Fields' face was as red as the parking ticket he was removing from his windshield the other day. Angry, or embarrassed, Jack?

Bob Webb's still trying to explain to Peg why he wasn't in that News picture with the Arthurs. He was their passenger to Texas.)

The bells are ringing for two, long-time, next door neighbors. He's a Grandpa and she's a pretty widow.

Both the young married couples and the young at heart enjoyed the first dance Saturday night of the newly reorganized "Old Time Dance Club."

Janet Brooks is thinking of taking an auto mechanics' course after her trip to Beloit last week and two flat tires!

Beauty is as Beauty does, and our own local Hair Beautifier, Jackie Casella, is planning a trip to Hot Springs, for all the glamour stuff, and a much needed rest! (Have fun, but we think you're swell just the way you are.)

The Doc Maddens had a double celebration for their 25th, with a well attended dinner at Smart's Saturday night and an open house on Sunday.

Picture of the week, (If I only had a camera) Ed. Martin (furniture you know), looking like something out of Esquire, in Bermudas and white shirt at the bowling alley last Wednesday night!

Well, until next week,
While you work, or while you play,
I'll be watching you Along the Way.

Inside Antioch High

By Mike Brooks

Everywhere in Antioch High one hears talk about the approaching pheasant season. Judging from the gossip, we must have some real "bird hunters" here—at least hopeful masters of the art! Thanksgiving vacation is also coming in for its share of "buzz" and we even hear a few whispers about Christmas. In addition to "talk," "talk," "talk" about these and hundreds of other things, one can hear many other kinds of sounds at Antioch High.

Down in the bandroom the ATHS Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Joseph Rush, can be heard practicing for their concert on November 18, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. Band members are selling tickets and they will also be on sale at the door. Admission is 50 cents for students and $1.00 for adults. Our band is a very fine organization. They practice many hours for their public performances and would like to see more public support.

Also working on their share of the November 18 concert are the Dance Band and Swing Choir. The Dance Band can always be depended upon for "top notch" entertainment. The Swing Choir is a new organization at Antioch High this year. It was originated at Summer Music Camp by our new choral director, Miss Della Tronchek. The group performed for an enthusiastic audience at PTA last week and we hope that large numbers will be on hand to applaud this "swingin', swayin'" group at the Fall Concert.

In the evenings, in the auditorium, rehearsals for the Junior Class Play are in progress. This production will be on Friday and Saturday of this week—November 10th and 11th—so mark it now on your calendar! Many of us remember the excellent performance of "Our Town" last year. This year's play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," is a humorous mystery thriller, quite different in character from "Our Town," but we know you will enjoy it just as much—"Variety is the spice of life" and Junior Class Plays. Come out and see this one.

Again speaking about "sounds" to be heard around and about Antioch High, have you heard that we now have chimes to announce the beginning of the announcements during third and sixth periods? This takes the place of the more formal—"May I have your attention, please!", and signals cheerily to students and faculty that if they want to know what's going on in "these parts" they had better listen! We may make "wise cracks" about the chimes, but I think most of us like this way of introducing announcement time.

The Freshman Class is sponsoring its annual clothing drive next week. Clothing collected is sent to depressed areas of our country. Anyone having clothing to contribute should contact a Freshman student, or, if necessary, call the office to arrange for a pick-up. This is a very good cause and the Freshmen are to be commended for making it an annual event.

Seniors have been meeting with representatives from various colleges for the past several weeks. The representatives come for one class period out of the day and interested Seniors are excused from class to meet with them. These conferences prove most valuable in pointing out the merits, advantages, and disadvantages of various colleges and are very helpful to college-bound seniors.

Cronson Relates Ill. Road Deaths

Illinois Municipal League delegates to the organization's annual convention in Springfield recently heard a plea for more vigorous traffic law enforcement in urban areas and a sterner treatment of traffic law violators by courts.

Assistant Secretary of State Robert G. Cronson, in making the plea, pointed out that so far this year there have been 1,461 traffic deaths in Illinois, 83 more than at the same time last year.

In non-urban areas, traffic fatalities decreased 29, dropping from 932 to 903, but this saving of lives was nullified in urban areas, where the total increased 112, going from 446 to 559, he said.

Reminding his listeners that for the last several years Illinois has regularly reduced traffic deaths, Cronson said:

"I am convinced that Illinois can get back to reducing its annual traffic death toll if we will, one, more vigorously enforce traffic and, two, take a sterner attitude toward traffic law violators in our courts."

Mr. Andrews has been feeding his Health classes yeast and old shoe polish—just in hopes that some of them will "RISE and SHINE." And we just hope all of you that read this column will do likewise in support of our Junior Class Play—November 10 and 11, and our Music Concert November 18. See you then!

Civil Service Positions Open In Trevor Locale

Postmaster Florence E. Dexter announced recently that a Civil Service examination will be conducted for the position of Postal Clerk at the Trevor Post Office. Available positions may be for full time, part time or temporary work.

Postmaster Dexter advises that post-office employment offers security, liberal vacation, paid sick leave, low cost life and health insurance, Civil Service career status and a sound retirement system. Starting pay is $2.16 an hour increasing with years of experience.

Applications will be accepted from November 8 through November 22, from persons, eighteen years or over, who live within the delivery limits of the Trevor Post Office or are bona fide patrons of that office. The written examination will be conducted at Kenosha. Postmaster Dexter and her staff will be available at the Trevor Post Office to issue applications and answer your questions about these positions.

Now you can heat that extra room economically with GAS!

NEW gas room-heaters are the ideal solution for providing cozy warmth in add-on living areas. Recreation rooms, attics, porches, or breezeways can be as comfortable as the rest of the house with a gas room-heater on the job.

Compact and good looking, these efficient units can be readily installed to give you controlled heat where you need it—when you need it. They require no flue or chimney. Air for combustion is drawn from the outdoors, and then safely vented out again. Thus, no room oxygen is consumed.

No other method of individual room heating offers so much—comfort, convenience, dependability, plus typical gas economy!

ADOPTION PROCEDURE IN ILLINOIS

Very often in our society a situation arises in which it is desirable to substitute a new parent or set of parents for a child's natural parents. This may arise because of the death of the natural parents, the abandonment of the child by the natural parents, the unfitness of the natural parents or from other causes. The procedure to effect this substitution is contained in the Adoption Act of Illinois.

The act specifically states that the welfare of the child shall be the prime consideration in all adoption proceedings and consequently a judge must keep this consideration uppermost in his mind in deciding whether or not to allow an action for adoption.

How It Is Done

The basic procedures to be followed in an adoption may be outlined as follows: First, the parent or someone standing in the place of the parent such as a legal guardian must consent to the adoption of the child. The provisions regarding the legal form of the consent, the persons who must give it and the situations in which it may be waived are too detailed to enumerate here, but it can be mentioned that the act specifically prohibits any adoption action within seventy-two hours after the birth of the child because it would obviously be difficult for a parent to make a proper decision concerning the matter at that time.

Secondly, the adopting parents file a petition setting forth certain required information concerning themselves and the child. This is filed in court within thirty days after the child is available for adoption so that the validity of the consent may be determined and so that an investigation of the adopting parents may be conducted to determine their fitness as parents, including such matters as their character and standing in the community and the religious faith of the adopting parents and the child.

If it appears at this time that the petitioners are obviously unfit or if the consent is inadequate, the proceedings can be terminated then before the child becomes too attached to his prospective parents. On the other hand, if the investigation is favorable, then the court may enter an order vesting temporary care, custody and control of the child in the petitioners. Finally, after the child has resided with the petitioners for a period of six months, the petitioners may apply for adoption which the court may grant if it finds that the adoption serves the welfare of the child.

Parental Responsibility

Once the adoption decree is entered, the natural parents of the child are relieved of all parental responsibility and are deprived of all legal rights with respect to the child. Likewise, the child is thereafter free of all obligations of maintenance and obedience as respects his natural parents. Furthermore in determining property rights thereafter, an adopted child is deemed a natural child of the adopting parents unless the contrary intent appears in any documents in question.

In general, any reputable adult of either sex may adopt a child, but if the one seeking to adopt is married, his spouse must join in the adoption. If there are special circumstances which warrant it, the court may permit a minor to adopt another person. In most instances, the person to be adopted will be a minor child but the statute does permit the adoption of an adult where he has resided with the adopting parents for two years preceding the adoption or where the adult and the adopting parents are related at least as closely as first cousins.

In order to keep the fact of the adoption confidential, the court will usually impound the records so that unauthorized persons will not have access to the information therein. Also, a new birth certificate will be issued by the state showing the child to be a child of the adopting parents.

This column is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the results under the law.

EGS Pupils Have Won Honors

Four students from Emmons Grade School, District 33, were selected for Honorable Mention Awards for posters submitted to the Annual Lake County Farm Bureau Poster Contest. Receiving the honors are Cheryl Toft, Etera Oganov and Michael Boskelly, eighth grade, and Stephen Revell, seventh grade. The health posters were judged on the basis of neatness, originality and theme content.

Award winners and their parents were invited to attend the Farm Bureau Annual Meeting, Saturday, Nov. 4, at 8:15 p.m. to receive the awards.

Task Force Seamen To Take Part In Assault

George A. Anzinger, fire control technician seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anzinger of Route 1, Antioch, and D. F. Runyard, electrician's mate third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Runyard of Route 3, Antioch, are serving aboard the transport USS Noble, and supply ship USS Union, units of an amphibious task force which took part in Operation "Silver Sword" on Oct. 30, assaulting beaches on the Island of Maui in the largest maneuver of its kind to take place in the Hawaiian Islands since World War II.

A routine training exercise to improve proficiency and teamwork in amphibious techniques, the operation consisted of 25 ships, 100 Marine Corps aircraft and more than 10,000 sailors and marines.

Climaxing several days intensive training in the area, the operation began when the first wave of the assault hit selected beaches on Maa-laea Bay shortly after midnight and was met by "opposing" forces to provide realistic combat training.

Ralph T. Moore writes in the Oregon Visitor: "The corporation is regarded as fair game for the enterprising labor leader. There is little or no concept of the corporation's real structure nor is there any genuine attempt to assure that pay raise is always compensated for by production raise so that competitive status is undisturbed. The demanded raise always has strong political flavor and bears no relationship to the industry's current position. There is invariably the naive, childish belief that the corporation can meet almost any demand. . . . One could wish that this were truth rather than fiction. . . . But it isn't and simple arithmetic has not abdicated to ivory-tower theory."

Instead of complaining because we don't get everything we want, we should be happy we don't get all we deserve.—Leader, Garner, Iowa.

Church Begins In Lakes Area

The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod will begin a new mission church in the Chain-of-Lakes area in the near future. Pastor Kenneth Haskell, who was graduated from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Mo., recently, began survey work on August 1.

A Membership-Bible Class series will begin November 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the pastor's home, 1010 E. Lincoln Drive in Fox Lake Hills. This will be the first meeting of the new mission church. The meetings will be informal and all are welcome to attend. The Bible will be studied.

Pastor Haskell, who was married this past summer to Ruth Kwasniewski, hopes to begin services around the first of the new year. A temporary place of worship is being sought at this time on State Rte. 59.

Antioch Boys Leave For Air Force Base

Charles Caddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Christophersen of Antioch, Ill., and Arthur (Reggie) Petersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Petersen of Antioch, recently left for Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, where they will receive their basic training for the Air Force.

The boys left on October 18th and hope to complete their training by Christmas.

Scout News

By Mrs. Raymond Claffy
ELI 04 6-5066
Girl Scouts

Amid a decorative Fall setting an impressive Flag Ceremony led by Christine Ipsen as color bearer, with Janet Anderson and Elizabeth Serrock as guards was the beginning of a new Intermediate Troop. At this time Mrs. Violet Zoll was invested by Mrs. George Derderian to be leader of the Troop which will be known as 124. Mrs. Zoll then pinned her committee members, Mrs. Surrock and Mrs. O'Higgins.

The girls who were presented with Girl Scout pins after repeating their Promise and Laws, were Ann Campbell, Kathy Garvin, Linda Latal, Kathy Merly, Stephanie O'Higgins, Marilyn Erdmann and Lynn Roberts. A short Brownie investiture was held at this time by the Brownie Troop 138 to welcome Brenda Hull, after this 8 Brownies which are now ready to become Intermediates were presented with Wings which they had earned by completing the Tenderfoot Rank requirements.

Mrs. Sonnon, co-leader, waved good-bye and wished luck to Janet Anderson, Rita Lunsford, Karen Sonnon, Susan Sarbacher, Sue Hall and Judy Miller who were then presented the Trefoll and Friendship pins by their new leader, Mrs. Zoll.

After a short talk by their leader refreshments were served.

The Brownies of Channel Lake Troop 177 have been busy as bees

this month collecting paperback books for the Veterans Hospital. They are doing much better than they had anticipated with well over 200 books now.

Plans are also in progress and they are rehearsing for a Musical Skit to be put on December 10, at which time there will be a family pot luck supper. Before the skit there will be an investiture of four new girls and one girl will receive her wings. Mrs. Lois Ward is the leader and Mrs. Mary Chase the co-leader.

The new Intermediate Troop of Lindenhurst sponsored by Lindenhurst Women's Club and meets at the Civic Center on Wednesday afternoons at 3:30-4:30 under the leadership of Mrs. Everett Standiford and co-leader Mrs. Howard Kilster have been out recently exploring the ABC's of Nature but have also been studying hard to learn all their requirements to be ready for their investiture to be held November 8. The troop at this time consists of 14 girls.

Remember the Friendship Fair to be held at Antioch Grade School on Nov. 18, at 3:30-5:00 p.m. All parents and friends of all Scouts are invited. The time has been changed due to the fact that the Brownies are not permitted to participate in any activities after 7 p.m.

Each troop in this area will participate in the program. The purpose of the Friendship Fair is to acquaint and bring International Relationships into our own community. As a Girl Scout you have friends all over the world. However it is important that we know our friends here and get along well with everybody in your neighborhood at School and strive to make new friends.

In these days of easy divorces, it might be a good idea to substitute bindweed for roses in the bride's bouquet—Record, Stockton, Kan.

Stay happy with this one. Small fry—a one-dollar steak—LeRoy Journal.

ADOPTION PROCEDURE IN ILLINOIS

Very often in our society a situation arises in which it is desirable to substitute a new parent or set of parents for a child's natural parents. This may arise because of the death of the natural parents, the abandonment of the child by the natural parents, the unfitness of the natural parents or from other causes. The procedure to effect this substitution is contained in the Adoption Act of Illinois.

The act specifically states that the welfare of the child shall be the prime consideration in all adoption proceedings and consequently a judge must keep this consideration uppermost in his mind in deciding whether or not to allow an action for adoption.

How It Is Done

The basic procedures to be followed in an adoption may be outlined as follows: First, the parent or someone standing in the place of the parent such as a legal guardian must consent to the adoption of the child. The provisions regarding the legal form of the consent, the persons who must give it and the situations in which it may be waived are too detailed to enumerate here, but it can be mentioned that the act specifically prohibits any adoption action within seventy-two hours after the birth of the child because it would obviously be difficult for a parent to make a proper decision concerning the matter at that time.

Secondly, the adopting parents file a petition setting forth certain required information concerning themselves and the child. This is filed in court within thirty days after the child is available for adoption so that the validity of the consent may be determined and so that an investigation of the adopting parents may be conducted to determine their fitness as parents, including such matters as their character and standing in the community and the religious faith of the adopting parents and the child.

If it appears at this time that the petitioners are obviously unfit or if the consent is inadequate, the proceedings can be terminated then before the child becomes too attached to his prospective parents. On the other hand, if the investigation is favorable, then the court may enter an order vesting temporary care, custody and control of the child in the petitioners. Finally, after the child has resided with the petitioners for a period of six months, the petitioners may apply for adoption which the court may grant if it finds that the adoption serves the welfare of the child.

Church Begins In Lakes Area

The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod will begin a new mission church in the Chain-of-Lakes area in the near future. Pastor Kenneth Haskell, who was graduated from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Mo., recently, began survey work on August 1.

A Membership-Bible Class series will begin November 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the pastor's home, 1910 E. Lincoln Drive in Fox Lake Hills. This will be the first meeting of the new mission church. The meetings will be informal and all are welcome to attend. The Bible will be studied.

Pastor Haskell, who was married this past summer to Ruth Kwasniewski, hopes to begin services around the first of the new year. A temporary place of worship is being sought at this time on State Rte. 59.

Antioch Boys Leave For Air Force Base

Charles Caddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Christophersen of Antioch, Ill., and Arthur (Reggie) Petersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Petersen of Antioch, recently left for Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, where they will receive their basic training for the Air Force.

The boys left on October 18th and hope to complete their training by Christmas.

Scout News

By Mrs. Raymond Claffy
Elliot 6-6666
Girl Scouts

Amid a decorative Fall setting an impressive Flag Ceremony led by Christine Ipsen as color bearer, with Janet Anderson and Elizabeth Serrock as guards was the beginning of a new Intermediate Troop. At this time Mrs. Violet Zoll was invested by Mrs. George Derderian to be leader of the Troop which will be known as 124. Mrs. Zoll then pinned her committee members, Mrs. Surrock and Mrs. O'Higgins.

The girls who were presented with Girl Scout pins after repeating their Promise and Laws, were Ann Campbell, Kathy Garvin, Linda Latal, Kathy Merly, Stephanie O'Higgins, Marilyn Erdmann and Lynn Roberts. A short Brownie investiture was held at this time by the Brownie Troop 138 to welcome Brenda Hull, after this 8 Brownies which are now ready to become Intermediates were presented with Wings which they had earned by completing the Tenderfoot Rank requirements.

Mrs. Sonnon, co-leader, waved good-bye and wished luck to Janet Anderson, Rita Lunsford, Karen Sonnon, Susan Sarbacher, Sue Hall and Judy Miller who were then presented the Trefol and Friendship pins by their new leader, Mrs. Zoll.

After a short talk by their leader refreshments were served.

The Brownies of Channel Lake Troop 177 have been busy as bees

this month collecting paperback books for the Veterans Hospital. They are doing much better than they had anticipated with well over 200 books now.

Plans are also in progress and they are rehearsing for a Musical Skit to be put on December 10, at which time there will be a family pot luck supper. Before the skit there will be an investiture of four new girls and one girl will receive her wings. Mrs. Lois Ward is the leader and Mrs. Mary Chase the co-leader.

The new Intermediate Troop of Lindenhurst sponsored by Lindenhurst Women's Club and meets at the Civic Center on Wednesday afternoons at 3:30-4:30 under the leadership of Mrs. Everett Standiford and co-leader Mrs. Howard Kilster have been out recently exploring the ABC's of Nature but have also been studying hard to learn all their requirements to be ready for their investiture to be held November 8. The troop at this time consists of 14 girls.

Remember the Friendship Fair to be held at Antioch Grade School on Nov. 18, at 3:30-5:00 p.m. All parents and friends of all Scouts are invited. The time has been changed due to the fact that the Brownies are not permitted to participate in any activities after 7 p.m.

Each troop in this area will participate in the program. The purpose of the Friendship Fair is to acquaint and bring International Relationships into our own community. As a Girl Scout you have friends all over the world. However it is important that we know our friends here and get along well with everybody in your neighborhood at School and strive to make new friends.

Topics for Today's Women

Susan Owens Married To Patrick Sullivan

On Saturday morning, Oct. 28, Miss Susan Marie Owens and Mr. Patrick Thomas Sullivan exchanged marriage vows before Father Hanley in St. Peter's Catholic Church, in a single ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Owens of 275 North Ave. and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sullivan of Channel Lake.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of ivory satin fashioned in a princess style, with applied lace outlining the edge, and the skirt falling to a chapel train. Her double illusion, shoulder length veil was crowned with a cluster of white forget-me-nots, and she carried a cascade bouquet of Fuji mums.

Serving as matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Robert Petykowski whose gown and accessories were of emerald green taffeta. She carried a basket of fall flowers.

Mrs. Bruce Barnes, Miss Billie Bergmark and Mrs. Annette Ryan served as bridesmaids. Their costumes were all of gold taffeta and they each carried a basket of fall flowers.

Serving as best man for the groom was Dennis Horton with Bruce Barnes, Leslie Sullivan, brother of the groom, and Red Murovski ushering the guests.

Flower girl was Darlene Owens, sister of the bride, and her two brothers, Billy and Steve, were ring bearer and train bearer, respectively.

A reception for guests was held at the Swedish Glee Club in Waukegan. Following a wedding trip to St. Louis, Mo., the couple is now at home at Sylvan Lake, Mundelein.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Antioch High School. The new Mrs. Sullivan was graduated as salutatorian of her class in 1960.

DIAMONDS AS AN INVESTMENT

Compared with stocks and bonds, there are many which have risen in value over the years at a greater rate than diamonds. Some have fallen by comparison. Some have proved more negotiable. Many have not. Many have paid cash dividends of considerable size and consistency. Diamonds pay no cash dividends whatsoever. But we can say without reservation that no stock or bond or any other investment is a more elegant adornment nor lends more to the enhancement of one's sense of confidence nor is more pleasant to behold. Yes, imagine wearing something for years and years, something that gives prestige and stature, yet remains precious throughout. What other investment can make that statement?

First Baptism For St. Mark's Church

By Mrs. Bernice Bernau

St. Mark's Lutheran Church had its first Communion service last Sunday, November 5, in conjunction with the regular 10:45 a.m. worship service. Pastor Nelson reports excellent attendance, with 77 communing.

Guy Scott Wright was baptized during the services. This was the first baptism in the new congregation.

Sunday, Dec. 3, has been set as the date for an orientation meeting for all those interested in St. Mark's Lutheran church at Lindenhurst. The Rev. Myron Lindblom, Regional Director of American Missions of the American Lutheran Church will come from Chicago to explain the whole program used in establishing a new congregation such as St. Mark's Lutheran. The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Refreshments will be served, and a get acquainted hour will follow the meeting.

Lake Villa Miss Aims For Degree

Mr. Gilmer was born March 24, 1897, in Quincy, moving to Oak Park, where he resided for 10 years. He has lived in Antioch since 1928.

He was a member of St. Ignatius Episcopal Church, the Wisconsin Petroleum Assn. and the Illinois Petroleum Assn.

He was married to Ella N. Thuer on Dec. 25, 1918, and was a petroleum equipment and maintenance man, at Channel Lake.

Besides his widow, Ella Gilmer, he is survived by one daughter, June Soncek, one grandchild, David Soncek, of Antioch, and a sister, Mrs. Robert Hanks, Chicago.

Services were held at 8 p.m. Monday in the Strang Funeral Home, with the Rev. Edmond Hood officiating. Burial was at 4 p.m. Tuesday in Green Mount Cemetery, Quincy.

GEORGE BADAME

George Badame, 76, of Rt. 4, Box 100A, Lake Catherine, died Thursday evening at Roosevelt Memorial Hospital in Chicago after an 8 month illness.

Born Jan. 29, 1885 in Italy, he came to America in 1907, coming to Antioch 8 years ago. He worked for Horween Leather Co. in Chicago for 12 years before retiring in 1950.

He is survived by three sons, Phillip and Nick, Antioch, and Joseph of Chicago, one daughter, Mrs. Catherine Benton of Chicago, 13 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held Monday day morning, Nov. 6, in Chicago where mass was said at St. Francis Borgia Church with interment at Mt. Carmel in Hillside, Ill.

HERBERT F. WILTON

Herbert F. Wilton, 55, of Zion, died Friday, Nov. 3, at his home on MacAree Road, after an illness of two and one-half years.

Born April 14, 1906, in Salem Township, he moved to Antioch Township in 1923 where he lived until moving to Zion five years ago, where he had been farming. He was formerly employed at Johnson Motors for nine years.

Mr. Wilton is survived by his widow, Ruth Hughes Wilton; two sons, Brett, 13 and Frank, 11; one daughter, Barbara, 17; three brothers, Harold of Antioch, Melvin of Bristol, Wis., and Ward of Kenosha, Wis., and three sisters, Harriet Paulsen of Chicago, Myrtle Nielsen of Antioch and Emily Bock of Wadsworth.

Services were held at 1:30 Monday, at the Strang Funeral Home, with the Rev. L. H. Messersmith of the Millburn Congregational Church officiating. Burial was in Home Oak Cemetery.

LORA BEAN

Services were held at 1:30 Tuesday in the First Congregational Church at Geneseo for Mrs. Lora Bean, 73, of 336 E. Ogden Ave., with burial in Oakwood Cemetery there. Local arrangements were handled by the Strang Funeral Home.

Mrs. Bean died Saturday, Nov. 4, in Victory Memorial Hospital, Waukegan, after a six month illness. She had been making her home with her daughter, Carol Mapletorpe, of Antioch, since Sept. 18.

Mrs. Bean was born June 24, 1888, in Rock Falls and lived in Tampico for six years before moving to Geneseo in 1920. She was a member of the First Congregational Church, Daughters of Ruth and Royal Neighbors of America, all of Geneseo.

Her husband, Claire, preceded her in death in 1945. She is survived by four sons, Herbert, of Dalton, William of Geneseo, Paul of Wichita, Kansas, and James of Norris-town, Pa.; one daughter, Mrs. Charles Mapletorpe, 1023 Victoria St., two brothers, Harold Downey of Alton and Howard of Peoria; one sister, Mrs. Lou Williams of St. Petersburg, Fla., and 12 grandchildren.

In And About Our Town

On the southwest corner of Broadway and Orchard, perched upon a slab of cement, sits a 75 mm anti-tank gun. It is presumably there to commemorate the dead killed in World War II. Upon asking about as to where, when and why the cannon is there, a reporter of the Antioch News found nothing. Nobody knows the origin of this piece of artillery. How many times have you driven past it? Have you ever thought where it came from? We'd very much like to know. Perhaps it dropped out of the blue.

Missionary Candidates Relate Their SA Work

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Henriksen, missionary candidates under the Wycliffe Bible Translators, will tell through pictures and demonstration of their future work in South America at the 7 p.m. service of the Antioch Evangelical Free Church this coming Sunday, Nov. 12. The service will be at Emmons School, Beach Grove Road and Highway 59.

Wycliffe Bible Translators specialize in reaching tribes that have never had a written language. Their missionaries, trained in linguistics, spend many difficult hours reducing sounds to words and a written alphabet. After making primers and teaching the people to read their own language, their work is climaxed in the translation of the Bible into the new language to be printed and distributed to the people.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Henriksen have completed linguistic studies at the University of Oklahoma in preparation for this work. They will leave in December for a Jungle Camp in Mexico where they will be trained to live under primitive conditions. From there they will be sent to a tribe in South America which as yet does not have a written language.

Lee Henriksen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Henriksen, Lake Shore Drive, Antioch.

Man does have less courage than a woman. Imagine a man with 17c in his pocket trying on 7 suits of clothes in four different shops. — Journal, Berlin, Wis.

Local Sailor Involved In Okinawa Operations

James R. Cole, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Cole of 842 N. Main St., Antioch, Ill., is taking part in Exercise "Warm-Up," a joint naval-marine amphibious operation in the Okinawa area, while serving aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Princeton.

We know most of what's going on around here, but we have to read the local paper to see whether they've been caught at it.

St. Peter's R. C.'s to Sponsor Charity Ball at Civic Center
Larry Jurgaitis of Waukegan is providing the music for the Charity Ball, Saturday, Nov. 11, at the Lindenhurst Civic Center on Old Elm Road, sponsored by the St. Peter of Antioch Council of Knights of Columbus.

This is an annual event to raise money for charity. Al Smith is chairman. Officers of the organization are Emil Kubs, deputy grand knight and Ray Wehrs, grand knight.

Dancing will start at 9 p. m.

Walter Szydlowski Dies Friday

Walter Szydlowski of 69 Brooklane died Friday night in McHenry Hospital. Mr. Szydlowski and his wife, Jenny, had just moved into their new home one week before. He suffered a stroke two days before he died.

He was born in Poland, June 30, 1888, and lived in Chicago before moving to Lindenhurst. Before he retired he had been a janitor for the Chicago Board of Education.

Mr. Szydlowski was the father of Mrs. Helen Mindak of 105 North Hawthorne Drive in Lindenhurst. He also leaves two other daughters, Mrs. Irene Treve of Chicago and Mrs. Bernice Malstrom of McHenry, seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Burial was at St. Adalbert's Cemetery in Niles from St. Hyacinth Church in Chicago, Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Mabel J. Gillis, of Chicago, sister of Ray Verdick of Fairfield Road, passed away last week and was buried Saturday.

Sixty-eight women attended the Prince of Peace Altar and Rosary Sodality Membership breakfast at Smart's Restaurant at Antioch Sunday morning after Mass.

The highlight of the breakfast, was the playing of a Happy Birthday record for Father David Lynch whose birthday was Sunday. A birthday cake was brought in with two lighted sparklers. Like Jack Benny, Father Lynch was only "39" years old.

Christmas Bazaar November 25 and 26

The Sodality is having a Christmas bazaar November 25 and 26 at the Lake Villa school on 132 and 21. The highlight of the affair will be an auction of a sealed gift sent here from the White House by Mrs. Jackie Kennedy, wife of the President. No one will know what the box contains, until after it is bought.

for the youngsters to dance to. Games were played and enjoyed by all who attended. The ping pong table donated by the Lindenhurst Sportsmen's Club got a workout.

Bob Spieg and Dudley Mertes get credit for organizing this affair for the youngsters, but they do need help to chaperone and help these youngsters plan their games. Like everyone else, these men would like to spend their Sunday evenings with their families and friends. If you can spare a Sunday once in a while, will you contact Spieg at EL 6-5112. The children would like these affairs to be every Sunday evening.

The next get-together will be Sunday, Nov. 19, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. It is hoped that more 17 and 18 year olds will attend. Plans for a Christmas party will be made at the next meeting.

Guy Scott Wright, three month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wright, 2311 East Deerpath Road, was baptized Sunday at St. Mark's Lutheran Church during services. Rev. Harold I. Nelson is the pastor.

Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lokken of Madison, Wis. Guests were the paternal grandfather, John Maronic of Hammond, Ind., maternal grandfather Edward Pettijohn from Midlothian and Mrs. Vera Overeem and daughter Linda from Elmhurst.

Mrs. Wright's mother, Mrs. Olive Pettijohn, passed away two weeks ago.

Women's Club to Meet

The Lindenhurst Women's Club will have their regular monthly meeting Thursday, Nov. 9, at the Lindenhurst Civic Center on Old Elm Road, promptly at 8 p.m.

This will be Mother and Daughter night and entertainment will be by the Alyce Shea Dancing School in Lake Villa. Mothers and daughters are invited to attend.

Nominations of officers for 1962 will be heard from the floor. Refreshments will be served.

Ivy Cancer League held its Christmas Bazaar at the Hooper School on Sand Lake Road all day Saturday. The affair was not attended as well as it should have been, but for the number of people who showed up, they did quite well. The floral arrangements by Ted Brendel went quite well. Also the booth selling Barbie doll clothes. So many lovely hand made articles were left that the league is planning to have a card party Tuesday, Dec. 4. Mark that on your calendar and hire your sister early. This is another affair that should be supported. Money is needed for cancer research.

The Holy Name Society of Prince of Peace Church in Lake Villa will receive Holy Communion at the 8 a.m. mass Sunday, Nov. 12.

The senior class of the Holy Child High School in Waukegan, will present the play "Room for One More" on Saturday and Sunday evening, Nov. 11 and 12 at 8 p.m.

Smith Warns That Spraying Is Necessary In The Fall

Elm trees can be sprayed with D.D.T. or Methoxychlor either this fall or early next spring to kill the European elm bark beetle that carries Dutch Elm disease, according to Lee Smith, Kenosha County Horticultural agent.

Elm trees are sprayed during their dormant season whenever the temperature is above freezing, Smith said. This usually means now or early spring before the buds start to open. Last winter, the city of Kenosha was able to spray a few days in January during a period of warm weather.

Smith reported that tests were made from spring and fall sprayed trees in Kenosha last year, by the State Department of Agriculture. The tests were made the last week in May and showed that equal control was given by either fall or spring spraying.

The advantage of fall spraying is that generally the ground is more solid around the trees—thus the spraying equipment is less likely to cut into the lawns.

The final count on elm trees lost in the city of Kenosha, was 224 while the county areas lost 609. Salem and Somers townships had the heaviest losses this year, with 222 and 114 respectively. The losses in other municipalities were: Pleasant Prairie, 63; Bristol, 8; Paris, 0; Brighton, 7; Randall, 48; Wheatland, 3; Twin Lakes, 79; Silver Lake, 37; and Paddock Lake, 36.

Marine Trains with Naval Assault Group

OKINAWA, (FHTNC) — Marine Pfc. Ronald E. Yates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yates of 287 Bridgewood dr., Antioch, is taking part in Exercise "Warm-Up", joint naval-marine amphibious operation in the Okinawa area, while serving with the Third Battalion of the Ninth Marine Regiment.

The battalion, a unit of the Okinawa-based Third Marine Division, is one of the division's components participating in the exercise with units of the powerful Seventh Fleet.

Native Ends Training Is Armed For Combat

Army Pvt. Robert J. Roth, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Roth, Sr., Route 2, North Shore Loon Lake, Antioch, completed four weeks of advanced training with the 1st Infantry Division at Fort Riley, Kan., Oct. 21.

Roth received on-the-job training with Company B of the Division's 12th Infantry.

Noted for its combat record in both World Wars, the "Big Red One" division was recently designated a Strategic Army Force (STRAF) unit as part of the Army augmentation program. The division is now being armed, equipped and trained to be combat ready for deployment in the event of limited or general warfare anywhere in the world.

The 18-year-old soldier is a 1961 graduate of Morton West High School, Berwyn, and was employed by Johnny's Gulf Service Station, Lyons, before entering the Army.

Antioch-Lake Villa Neighborhood Association held its monthly meeting October 23, at Grass Lake Scout House. The meeting was opened with the presentation of colors, and the secretary, after reading the minutes of last meeting, included an outline of the yearly program. The chairman, Mrs. George Sedivec, spoke about the Girl Scouts of the United States Regional three-day Conference being held at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago Nov. 8-10, which she will attend with Mrs. Helen Fox, Troop consultant. A Council meeting was held last Wednesday, Oct. 25, preceded by a pot luck dinner at 6 p.m.

Plans are being made for a Friendship Fair to be held Saturday, Nov. 18, from 7-9:30. All parents and friends of all Scouts will be invited.

A report from each leader was given on their Troop's plan for participation in the Fair.

Mrs. Helwig of Venetian Village introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Robert Hammett, Adviser of the Explorer Post 88 of Venetian Village, and with him, his assistant Adviser, Mr. Robert Alderton, with several Post members who specialize in emergency and disaster service. They have a fully equipped ambulance and demonstrated how they are ready and able to take part in any emergency. He explained how Senior and Intermediate Girl Scouts could participate in the Civil Defense program in time of disaster, and how some of the fields in which the girls are now working such as Junior Red Cross, Cooking and many other fields, will be put to good use.

Those present were highly impressed by the speech and demonstrations given by the post and agreed that the slogan of the Scouts "Be Prepared" was being carried out very efficiently.

There will be investiture of new leaders by Mrs. Sedivec at next month's meeting with a display of the 50th anniversary souvenirs.

Refreshments were furnished by Grass Lake Troops 210 and 201. Arts and Crafts display by Brownie Troop 111 was exhibited.

We would like to thank the people of Antioch and Lake Villa area for their contributions during our annual Girl Scout Fund Drive. We would also like to thank the mothers who took time out from their other duties to collect on the Drive, also the Brownies, Intermediate Scouts and Junior Police for passing out pamphlets that preceded the fund drive.

Mrs. Queen, Family to Family Chairman, feels that this has been one of the most successful drives, and wishes to include her thanks to all workers.

A GIRL SCOUT Uniform exchange Day was held in Lindenhurst at the Civic Center Oct. 14, and in Antioch Oct. 21 at the Scout House with a very nice turnout for both days.

If you have any uniforms to exchange or donate you may call Mrs. Claffy, El 6-5086 or Mrs. Sedivec, 395-0087.

A Council Roundup for Senior Girl Scouts was held at Chain O' Lakes State Park Oct. 20-21-22. This Roundup was held to evaluate the girls' abilities. Four girls will be chosen to represent the Council at National Roundup to be held at Button Bay, Vermont, in July, 1962.

The girls were broken up in patrols with 8 in each, representing the entire Council as Unit Advisers. Miss Margien Lund and Miss Sara Davis along with the Senior Planning Board were the co-ordinators of the campout.

There were about 55 persons in attendance. Many more were kept away due to inclement weather.

Fifteen girls from Intermediate Troop 216 of Lake Villa, under the leadership of Mrs. Ruth Sorenson and co-leader Mrs. Mabel Hansen, spent Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 21 and 22 at Chain O' Lakes State Park on an overnight campout.

They arrived at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, with several parents on hand to help set up camp. Later the girls were separated into patrols and took their turns at cooking and other camp duties. Also on Saturday evening a Cracker Barrel was held and all parents were invited. A program was put on and refreshments were served. A visit was made to the Council Senior Roundup at another section of the Park, where they were instructed in different phases of camp lore. The Intermediates were asked to put on a skit.

Brownie Troop 107 of Lake Villa made Halloween place favors for the patients at Downey Veterans Hospital and sent them with the Auxiliary of the VFW last Thursday, Oct. 19. Mrs. Joyce McCleod is leader of the troop with Mrs. Dorothy Heitman and Mrs. Betty Collins as co-leaders. They meet on Wednesdays at the Lake Villa Village Hall.

Brownie Troop 126, of Lindenhurst, held an investiture to welcome 8 new girls into their troop Oct. 24, at B. J. Hooper School.

A birthday party in honor of Juliette Low followed the investiture, at which time the girls donated pennies according to their age. The pennies will be used for the Senior Roundup.

The girls and their mothers enjoyed refreshments.

OUR PACK

The October pack meeting was held at the Antioch Grade School October 28. The meeting was opened with a flag ceremony by Den 3.

The skits were put on by Den 2, "The Cat Who Wanted to Ride on a Broom"; and Den 3, "Rip Van Winkle."

A Halloween party was also held at pack meeting with games and bobbing for apples. The parents and children all came in costume. A grand time was had by all.

Round Table will be held Nov. 8, at Round Lake.

The next committee meeting will be held on Nov. 13 at the Scout House at 8 p.m.

The awards for the month of October were as follows:

Bobcats — Glenn Martin, Brian Sorenson, Victor Benning, Edward Surrock, Richard Mattes.

Wolf — Fred Zoll, Tim Green, Jon Story, Ted DeBoer, David Strang.

Grant Smashes Sequoits' Victory Hopes 27-7

Antioch Chargers Rally In Second Half to Score

By Mike Brooks

Saturday night, the Sequoits were beaten by a fast and powerful Grant H.S. in the finale of the 1961 Antioch football schedule. The Bulldogs' Greg Olson scored 21 points to capture the conference scoring title with 70 points. He scored on a 34 yd. pass from QB Steve France, a 2 yd. run and a 4 yd. run. Olson also tallied 3 extra points.

Wasting no time in getting their attack into action, Olson was on the receiving end of a 34 yd. TD pass on second play from scrimmage. The extra point was no good and Grant led 6-0.

Later in the first quarter, Olson again tallied by the means of a 4 yd. run. He added the extra point with a pass from France which made the score 13-0.

Early in the second quarter, climaxing a 47 yd. drive, Olson scored his third and final touchdown of the season on a 2 yd. stumble. France lobbed a pass to Olson to increase the bulging score of Grant to 20-0. Grant saw their final TD of the season scored when QB France finally saw somebody besides Olson to throw to. Nyden received a 28 yd. screen pass and crossed into the end zone. Olson, "The terror of the Gridiron," again added the extra point. The half ended with Grant possessing a commanding lead of 27-0.

After getting warmed up in the dressing room, the Sequoits came back on the field and started to play a fine game of football. The second half of this game appeared to be the best showing of the year for the Sequoits. After being held to only 3 first downs in the first half, while Grant marched to 10 first downs, the Sequoits exploded and fought for a total of 6 in the second half. It is interesting to notice that Grant bogged down in the mud against the fired-up Antioch line and only picked up four first downs in the second half.

The Sequoits marched 76 yards in only 7 plays to score. Senior QB Joe Pleviak hit Senior End, Bob Krieger with a 39 yd. aerial for the touchdown. Ron Gable added the extra point. The final gun sounded, leaving Grant with a "first half" victory.

Congratulations to a fine Antioch Sequoit football team! We were with you all the way.

Many thanks to Jim Bill Cain, Rolf Westberg, and Diane Miller, who were very helpful in spotting the games this season.

Sequoit Sophomore Coach, Roy Nelson, reported that his team had tied for second place in the Sophomore Suburban Conference. The team won last Saturday's game 13 to 7, giving them 3 wins, 2 losses and 2 ties for the season.

Football Star, Fabry, Plays At Cornell U.

Fred Fabry, 210 lb. tackle on the Cornell College football team, Mt. Vernon, Iowa, has been named one of the key men on the leading team in the Midwest Conference, by Coach Jerry Clark.

Fred has specialized in dropping opposing backs with his crashing tackles and Coach Clark gives Fred much credit for the Rams' ability to limit opposing teams to an average of just 120 yards by rushing, per game.

Cornell is leading the Midwest Conference title race this season, with six victories and one loss and the Rams are pointing for the Conference Championship, after placing second in '59 and '60.

Fred, who is a senior at Cornell and an ATHS graduate, from Lindenhurst, will play in the final game of the conference season with Grinnell Nov. 11, at Mt. Vernon.

"Civilizations of the past have been shattered, but like the moss on the rock man is still here. . . . Does this mean that our civilization could survive an atomic war? No, not necessarily. But it should suggest that were we to go down in defense of freedom all would not be lost. Though we may have to enter into the valley of the shadows we would betray the human race were we to be frightened into giving away our liberty."—Providence, Ky., Journal-Enterprise.
